The story of Glory Days Grill is the story of three restaurant entrepreneurs, Richard Danker, Bob Garner and Jeff Newman, who lived just outside the nation’s capital and their passion for great food and good sports. Founded with the first location in Burke, VA in April of 1996, each Glory Days Grill is the embodiment of their vision of a restaurant that serves outstanding food with tremendous hospitality in an atmosphere that promotes and supports the positive attributes of sports. Additionally, each Glory Days Grill restaurant prides itself for being a cornerstone of the community in which it’s located, dedicated to providing employment opportunities for first time entrants to the work force and committed to giving back to local schools and community organizations via partnerships, sponsorships and charitable donations. At Glory Days Grill, there’s something here for everyone, so bring in the families and fanatics, the soccer dads and working moms, the young and the young at heart.

Glory Days Grill currently owns and operates locations in Maryland, Virginia and West Virginia. After years of terrific success in the mid-Atlantic region, Glory Days Grill begins an exciting period of growth, partnering with MVP Holdings, to bring the BEST of Glory Days Grill to Florida and your community.
